My dear Mr. Booth:

Thank you very much for your kind letter of November 30th. Pardon my delay in answering it. It is very encouraging to receive your kind letter of appreciation.

My dear Mr. Carter:

Thank you very much for your letter of November 20th. I am very glad indeed to learn that you are to be in the Country next Spring. I hope that I shall have the privilege of meeting you personally at that time. I profited and enjoyed very much your address which I heard last summer in Edinburgh. I was very glad to receive a printed copy of it.

I am forwarding your letter to the Rev. Doctor Clarence E. Mcartney of Philadelphia a former moderator of the Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A. and a leading fundamentalist in this Country. Perhaps he will be able to use you at sometime.

We are located only ninety miles from Toronto and it might be feasible to arrange a meeting at which you could speak. Perhaps Dr. Shield of Toronto could let me know of the date of your Toronto engagement and we might work ours in with that. Hoping to see you in due time and with all good wishes, I am,

Very sincerely yours,

MRS. ALZIRA GREENE

On the last day of 1925, Mrs. Alzira Gaines Greene passed away at her home, 43 Court street, Lancaster, N. Y., after an illness of less than twenty-four hours. Chronic Myocarditis was the immediate cause of her death.

Funeral services were conducted at her late home at 2:30 p. m., Saturday, January 2, 1926, Rev. Harry J. Aldrich of Kenmore, officiating. Burial was in the Christian cemetery at Castile, N. Y., Sunday, Jan. 3rd, the services there being conducted by Rev. McMichael, pastor of the Christian church of which Mrs. Greene was a member from early womanhood.

Alzira R. Gaines, born on March 2, 1837, was one of a family of six children of Sarah Derby, daughter of Jonathan Gilbert and Solomon Gaines, who conducted a silver smith business in the house now known as 'The Maples.' Mrs. Greene was a sister of Alamanzer Gaines, who founded The Castilian and who was proprietor of this paper for many years.

On September 11, 1854, she was married to David E. Greene of Castile. For a number of years they resided in Mosherville, Michigan. In 1870 they moved to Pike, N. Y., where Mr. Greene was in company with his two brothers, Mr. George A. Greene and Mr. J. Frank Greene in the well known woolen mills. They made their home in Pike until Mr. Greene's death in November, 1912, at which time Mrs. Greene took up her residence in Lancaster, N. Y.

Music was always a prominent feature in this family and during the last year she has greatly enjoyed the radio. Notwithstanding the fact that she was nearly ninety, she made ready each Sunday morning, seated in her easy chair to "listen in" to the sermon of Rev. Stuart Robinson of Lockport, N. Y. She liked him best for "he talked right on the Bible," she would say. She was a kind, good neighbor, loved her home and her family and put in the little kindnesses and loving touches which make "Home Sweet Home."

Mrs. Greene is survived by two daughters, Mrs. J. G. Dickson of Lancaster, N. Y., and Mrs. E. E. VanNatter of Holland, N. Y.; one sister, Mrs. Sibyl Bixby of Buffalo; Heath of Lancaster, N. Y.; eight nieces, Mrs. Bert Smith of Castile, Mrs. Grace Forbes of Gary, Indiana, Mrs. Mattie Mitchener and Mrs. Jessie Jones of Kalamazoo, Michigan, Miss Cordelia A. Dear Mr Robinson:

I have been listening to your splendid services for several Sunday mornings and wish to thank you for them.

I am a fifteen year old boy and have been in bed for three months with heart trouble but will soon be up.
The radio is helping

3 speaking I never miss anything in the service from beginning to end. The music is fine.

We have a three tube radio with loudspeaker. Your service can be <sup>our flat</sup> heard all over ~~the house~~ so it is just like going to Church.
When I was first sick we hadn't a radio so the Church services were missed.

I me pass the time and your sermons are helping me spiritually.

My parents hear a part of your service before going to our own Church - The United Church - at eleven. They also like your service.

Thanks to W M A K and to your splendid

4 After being out of church so long I certainly enjoy hearing a service.
We were through Rockport once, on our way to Rochester.
Rockport is certainly a nice place.

I look forward to hearing your service every Sunday.
Wishing you and your Church a Very Merry Christmas and a

5 Happy New Year.

I remain,

Yours sincerely
Harold Fair.

Dear Sir. Dec 20th / 25. Ans

We heard you say over the Radio this morning, that it is just a year ago to day since you started Broadcasting. so we thought we would send $5 for the Radio Fund. as we have received a lot of benefit and pleasure through listening in to your Church service. the sermons always seem far too short. Now I am going to ask you for two things. mine is an English Church Hymn book. could you manage to read the first line of the Hymn. so as we could find it and follow the singing. and — I don't know how you will take this. but as I have been a Chukin for 9 yrs. getting on to 60 yrs old. I am going to venture.

Have you a photo of yourself to spare. I always like to look at the minister when he is preaching. now if this is too much just forget this last request.
Wishing you a happy Christmas and

Prosperous New Year.

Yours sincerely,
(m) Elam E. Worthy.

Dear Mr Robinson.

Just a line to let you know that we listened with pleasure and profit this morning to your sermon from Luke. 2. 11. 12.

I have a friend, an old lady of advanced years, a sincere Christian, who comes in quite frequently to listen in, and we wished you to know, that your sermons, have meant so much to us, and find great comfort listening to your messages which we hear so plain.

Wishing you continued ~~success~~ and Gods blessing upon your good work.

Also wishing you a Happy Christmas

The Rev. & Lewart M. Robinson,

Dear Sir,

I am writing to let you know how thoroughly we enjoyed your service this morning. I am quite sure it was an inspiration to everyone hearing it.
Your Sermon could not help touching the heart, and giving it all the true Christmas spirit in every sense of the word.

One could not help feeling better and closer to our Dear Saviour, for having his touch in your clear and expressive service. I wish to thank you for my husband and myself, and we will certainly be listening for your service next Sunday. Wishing for you and your congregation all the compliments of the Season.

Dear Sir -

May I tell you how much we enjoyed your Christmas Sermons? My mother is nearly eighty-three years of age - in poor health and shut-in. Have just been having a Radio installed and now she does enjoy the good things she is enabled to hear that other wise she would be without. She especially enjoys <sup>the</sup> sermons, and music & singing on Sundays. Again I want to say how much we did appreciate the services this morning -

My dear Mr. Robinson It is a great pleasure to tell you we did so much enjoy your service this morning - Your message was so simple so plain and so great. I wish every body everywhere could have heard it. I wish I had it in shorthand so I could read it again and again, and pass it round - What an opportunity and what a responsibility for the man who is privileged to broadcast. We have only two children (girls) both married to ministers. One, pastor of Hedding M.E. church in Elmira, the other pastor of Trinity good preaching is. God grant you many years to spread the message -

Dear Sir,

The purpose of this letter is to thank you for your excellent sermon yesterday morning. It came to me by radio in a good clear voice. I am sure I heard you as well as my member of your own congregation. Your sermon gave your listeners a good deal of food for thought most deeply appreciated such as you gave yesterday morning, when I find it
